Items to take with you

The Snow-mobiling company will collect credit card details from you before the excursion – this is in case you damage any part of the bike during the excursion. (This is very unlikely if you follow the instructions and drive sensibly) Your details are then handed back after the excursion if there is no damage. You will be offered damage insurance at a cost of €10/bike – Please note!! This damage insurance has a €400 excess meaning damages under this will need to be paid for, damages over the excess, only the excess will be paid.
